Amherstide
July 21/67

My dear friend

148 On receiving your last welcome letter, I thought it well to ascertain whether Mr Walker
- who is in very delicate health - w^d be in ~~London~~ London at the time of your return to it. He replies that he expects & intends to be at home on the 27th & onwards, & that he "w^d not miss seeing Mr Garrison
~~there~~ for a good deal." - I need not say that he knows nothing whatever of our recent correspondence. - It is a real relief to my mind that you d he will meet, - both for the satisfaction to him, & because I am, without any wish of my own, regarded as in some way, more or less answerable for the ways & manners of the Northern Americans in London; & graciousness from you will extinguish all speculation about the behaviour of your country, men to "Daily News," up to this time.

It is very kind of you to send me these newspapers,
- busy as you are, all day long.
The reports of the Garrison meetings are exceedingly interesting; & we shall send them forth among family & friends.

I am not at my best, these few days; & I must not write more. - I had a charming letter from Mrs Chapman yesterday. How she will enjoy your honours, - on all accounts! Dear friend, I am yours affectionately H. Martineau
